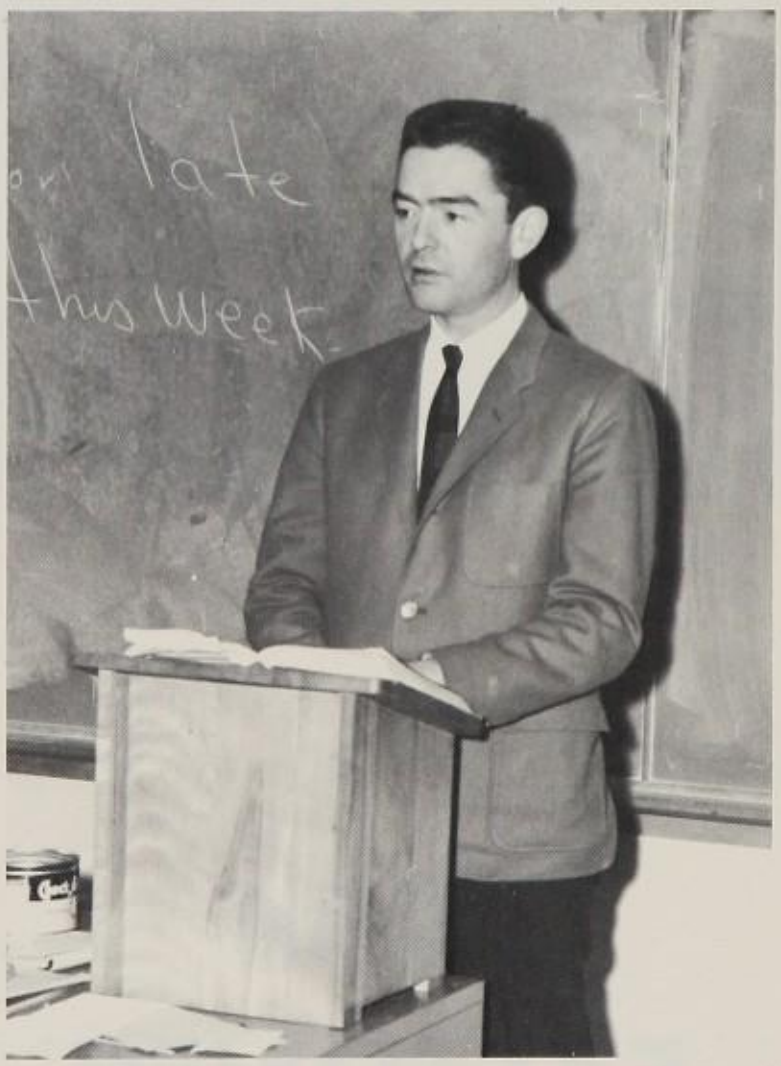
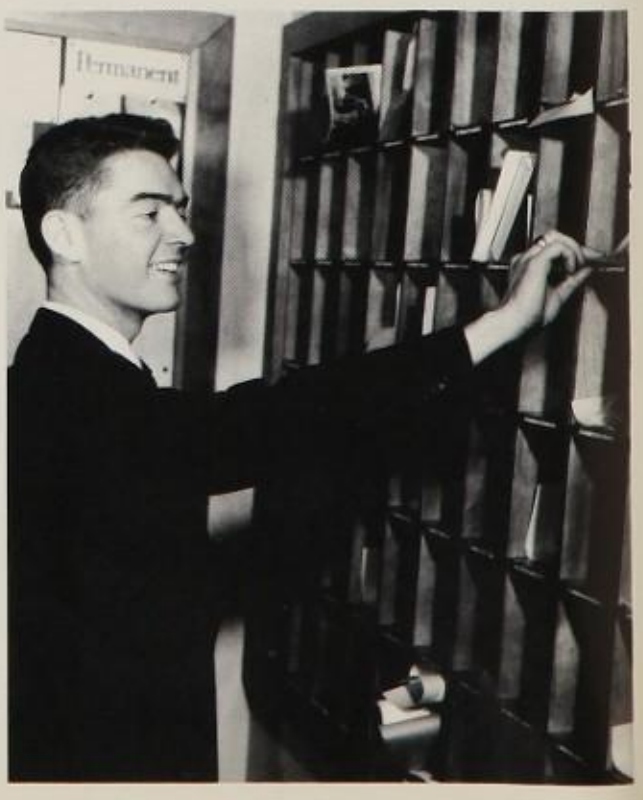
DEDICATION



FOR 1966

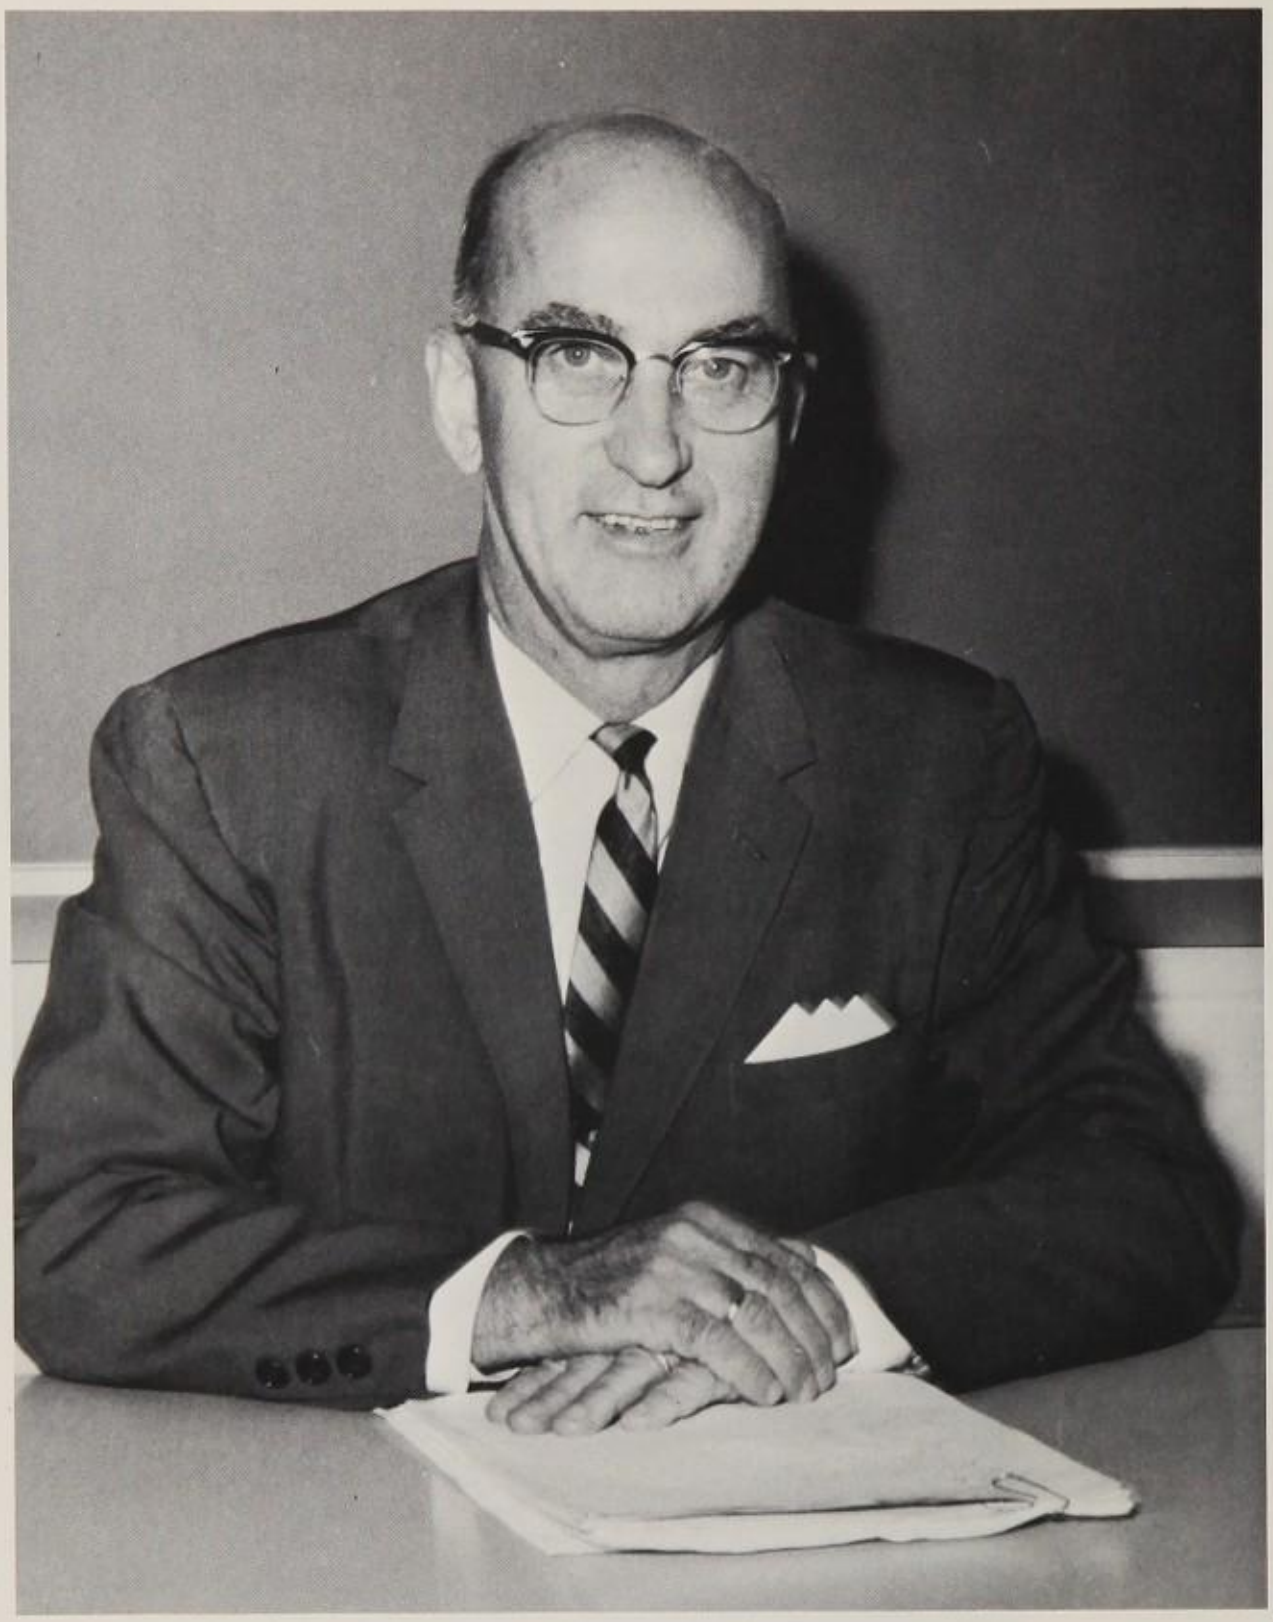
The Class of 1966 proudly dedicates its yearbook to Mr. Willis K. Smith. Throughout our years at Oliver Ames you have been a symbol of friendship and leadership. By never being too busy to give us a helping hand when needed, you have earned our respect and admiration. Therefore it is with great pride and pleasure that we offer you our sincerest thanks.



ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

With patience and understanding they share their knowledge and make us aware of the future.

Superintendent's Message



MR. PHILIP M. HALLOWELL, Superintendent of Schools

Have you ever stopped to think what it really means to be a graduate of The Oliver Ames High School? Does it mean that you have merely spent four years inside the brick walls that we call a school building?

Graduation means much more than terminating an association with a building. It means that you have grown into maturity. It means that you have been willing to accept responsibility. It means that you have acquired considerable knowledge. It means that you have made lifelong friendships. I could enumerate many other advantages of a high school diploma.

It has been estimated that the high school graduate earns about $35,000 more during his lifetime than the person who drops out of school although the graduate starts work one or two years later than the high school dropout. The 1960 census showed that carpenters with an elementary education earned an average of $4800 a year, while carpenters who had completed high school earned $5700. This same comparison may be made with other occupations.

Education also provides a hedge against the risk of unemployment in an era of rapid technological change; it provides an opportunity to choose among a variety of interesting and challenging kinds of work; it promotes stability of family life; and it leads to an appreciation of one's fellow man.

May you continue in your pursuit of knowledge beyond June, 1966.

Principal's Message

MR. JULIAN PREUSS, Principal

As your years at Oliver Ames come to the inevitable end, what do you hope for in your future? Good jobs, good wages, and good health? Certainly most of you would say you hope for peace and a better world.

To achieve realization of these hopes there is a still higher accomplishment—this is to remain free men. For all of these things—good jobs, good wages, good health, peace and a better world depend on our freedom. How then do we remain free men?

A look around the world should quickly convince us that the freest people on earth are the best educated. This is no accident, no coincidence. The freest people are those whose inquiring minds are allowed to question most widely, without limits, those whose minds reach out boldly. In short, we shall be free to the extent that we are willing to learn.

As we reflect on the pleasure we have known because you have been here, and think of our hopes for you as you leave, our brightest wish for you is that you continue to inquire, that you search for truth and not accept falsehood, and that you realize the most wonderful thing about learning is that there is no end to it.

Guidance

MRS. LOUISE SMITH

Our Guidance Department is one of the most advanced in the area. This year computer programming of schedules has been added. Next year because of Federal funds an elementary school guidance program will be added. All this is part of the idea of total career planning.

Mrs. Smith is the head of the department as well as carrying a full load of counseling.

Mrs. Silvia was an English teacher before she joined the counseling staff.

Mr. Chase is the newest member of the staff. He is studying for a doctorate in psychology while working here.

MR. BRADFORD CHASE

MRS. BIRUTE SYLVIA

Mrs. Gustafson is probably the busiest person in the office. She acts as secretary to all three counselors, but she seems to remember all the names of the students in the school.

Class History

The Oliver Ames High School Class of 1966 records its class history with honor and pride.

As seniors on the verge of graduation we evaluate our four years of high school with a sense of gratitude and debt to the past, mixed with many hopes and aspirations for the future. Our freshman year seems so long ago, but all of us remember our first few days which served as a prerequisite of what was to follow for the next four years. The first class meeting was held in November of 1962 with Craig Simonson, president; Thomas McNally, Vice-president; Phyllis Johnson, secretary; James Mitchell, treasurer, and Mr. Varella, our class advisor. At this time a Class Motto Committee was selected which chose our motto, "Invicti quod Conabamur"—"Only undefeated because we have kept on trying." This was placed on a banner bearing our class colors, blue and gold. Perhaps the most memorable and enjoyable event of our freshman year was "Oriental Enchantment" held in June. Many weeks of planning and preparation were well rewarded by the great success of our first social.

In the fall of 1963 we entered Oliver Ames High School for the first time, as sophomores. The class officers remained the same; however, Miss Healey became our class advisor with Mr. Ialenti, Mr. Nixon, and Mr. Smith as assistant advisors. The actual initiation into high school life came in December when we received our class rings. As sophomores we were well represented in sports and other school activities. Martha Ann Lundgren, Dianne Murray, Owen Graf and Karen Rollins were elected to Student Council. Our social, "Tahitian Holiday," held in March, was enjoyed by everyone due to the informal atmosphere and colorful tropical decorations.

September of 1964 brought us back to Oliver Ames as juniors. A new member was added to the officers: Marilyn Shaffer became our vice-president. The other officers retained their respective positions. In November our junior social entitled "Evening in Paris" was held in the cafeteria, which was appropriately decorated in a French setting. Many juniors were well established in various school activities. Robert Mitchell served as vice-president of Student Council, and the following students were installed into the Honor Society: Stephanie Bronchuk, Deborah Chisholm, Cynthia Grant, Edmund Hands, Linda Harvey, Judith King, Martha Ann Lundgren, Melissa Middleton and Robert Mitchell. Spring arrived and already preparations were started for the Junior-Senior Prom. It was decided that "Days of Wine and Roses" would be the theme. Both excitement and chaos mingled within the school those last few days before the Prom; however, a most memorable and delightful evening was spent by all who attended. In June the Senior Reception was the last event we attended as juniors. The gym was gaily decorated for the occasion with flowers and graduation caps. The usherettes included Linda Wolak, Deborah Barker, Stephanie Bronchuk, Deborah Coe, Joanne Correia, Karen DeCosta, Martha Anne Lundgren, Melissa Middleton, Karen Rollins, and Marilyn Shaffer. The ushers were Larry Dale, Steven Beaucaire, Mark Bergeron, James Flynn, James Harkins, Thomas McNally, Robert Mitchell, Louis Nisenbaum, Edward Ready, and Craig Simonson.

Our final year at Oliver Ames began in the fall of 1965 with Craig Simonson, president; Louis Nisenbaum, vice-president; Deborah Barker, secretary; and James Mitchell, treasurer. The novelty and excitement of becoming seniors prevailed throughout the entire year. Our last social, "Pier 66," was held in October. Much enthusiasm and preparation went into this event as the cafeteria was transposed into a sea-side night club with multi-colored signal flags and a picturesque ocean scene. Co-captains Mark Bergeron and Edward Ready brought the football season to a close as did co-captains Deborah Coe and Karen DeCosta in field hockey. This paved the way for the Hockomock League championships in both boys' and girls' basketball as our local cheerleaders, Linda Wolak, Linda Clark, Joanne Correria, Margery Hilliard, and Phyllis Johnson cheered the teams on to victory.

Our Class Play, under the direction of Miss Boucher, was presented in December after many weeks of trying rehearsals. Linda Harvey and Stanley Kavka played the leading roles in "Harvey," a comedy which brought much success and reward to the Senior Class.

About this time it was announced that Martha Ann Lundgren was voted the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award and Stanley Kavka would represent Oliver Ames High School on Student Government Day at the State House in Boston.

During our senior year Robert Mitchell served as president of Student Council, Karen Rollins as Secretary; and Donald Ward as treasurer. Also, the following students were initiated into the Honor Society: Steven Beaucaire, Owen Graf, Jean Guthrie, Sandra Hobbs, Judith Magner, Janet Peterson, John Pilz, Edward Ready, Craig Simonson, Phyllis Stromberg, Marjorie Sylvester, Sheila Vieira, Donald Ward, and Richard Yardley.

On May 7, 1966, we attended our last Prom. The springtime atmosphere and dinner-dance made the evening a memorable occasion to look back upon in future years. At last June came and we attended our final classes with mixed feelings of regret and happiness. During Senior Week, Baccaluareate, our Class Trip, Class Day Exercises, and finally Graduation led a pathway to our futures as we took a large step into a new phase of life. At our Senior Reception, we said good-bye to all our teachers and friends, and especially to Miss Healey, our faithful advisor to whom we all owe a great deal of gratitude for the long hours of patience and endeavor she has bestowed upon our class.

Class Prophecy

In the summer of 1976, ten years after the graduation of the class of 1966, a few members are driving through the thriving metropolis of Easton. As they come to an intersection, they are cut off by a little blue Falcon. Let's see what develops around the officer in charge.

Karen: Look, isn't that Ralph Azevedo signaling the 3 M's to move over to the side of the road?

Cindy: Yes. He stopped Margie Hilliard, Marilyn Shaffer, and Margie Sylvester for cutting into the motorcade.

Sheil: Isn't that Craig Simonson, the first mayor of Easton, riding in the head limousine: and Melissa Middleton, wearing a press cap, running after it?

Steve: Yes, and there's Walter Dunbar photographing Debbie Coe, who just won the Gold Medal for gymnastics at the Olympics.

Pam: Who is that riding in the politician's car?

Jerry: Why, that's Wally Varney and Janice Mather, who are rivals for city councilor.

Dave: Look what's coming now, the Easton Band!!!! There's Sue Chace still playing the flute and Eilene Robbins playing the drums.

Dianne: Over there in the third row is Judy Magner playing clarinet, with the new addition Janet Peterson.

Judy: Folks, look to your right at the new Ames General Hospital on Mechanic Street!

Stan: I heard that Danny Judge is head psychiatrist at the hospital and is doing experimental work on Lou Nisenbaum.

Karen: Larry Dale is in for acute . . . nurse, while two nurses, Laraine Noyes and Kathy Greeley, have been barred from the room!

Jerry: Unbelievable, Alan Nordling's Custom Made Pedal Pushers

Cindy: If you look behind that sign, you'll see Susan Stewart's cleaners and Mary Jane Brophy's original hat designs.

Sheil: Look ahead, there is Chilly Willy's Tuxedo Shop, run by Edmund Hands. He shares the building with Helen Furlong's dressmaking shop.

Judy: Karen, slow down by Janet Carlson's jewelry store.

Dave: There's Alan Hopkins' barber shop. He's in the process of cutting Claudia Lefort's hair.

Pam: Speaking of Alan, I hear Richard and Robert Hanson have taken over Harvey's Market.

Dianne: See that green Chevrolet over there? That's Karen Rollins' car; she's an instructor for nervous and elderly women.

Stan: I read in the newspaper yesterday that Joanne Correia has invented an elevated gas pedal.

Karen: I'm going to drive down by the park. I read in the newspaper that Robert (Brute) Parsons is coach of a midget football team.

Sheil: You remember Jim Harkins; he's also down the park a lot. He takes care of the park grounds.

SMASH!!!!!

Steve: I can see from here that that's Debbie Barker on the tennis courts.

Dianne: I'm hungry! Let's go to Dog 'n Suds and see if the ole' gang is still working there.

Cindy: There's Ann Comstock and Mary Previti still car hopping. I wonder if Gayle Eaton and Pauline Flinkstrom are still here.

Judy: Didn't you know that Gayle is a marriage counselor and Pauline has a column on the Cousin Mary's page about the perfect man?

Steve: Guess what! There's a golf village in the city called Ken-Bot-Tile, where Robert Kendall creates all low-scoring golf cards, Robert Botts shags all the golf balls and Richard Gentile cleans them.

Jerry: As long as we are talking about mutually owned businesses, did you know that David Brownell and Steve Clark bought out Mitrano's and it's now called Mutt and Jeff Foreign Car Dealers?

Dave: Let's visit the new high school. There's Robert O'Leary taking down the flag. Hey, what is that aroma??

Pam: That's coming from the cafeteria with Kathleen Coleman as head cook. Jean Guthrie, who is the new Librarian, has enlarged the library quite a bit, but she can still stress the point of having silence.

Karen: Hey, isn't that Cheekie, I mean Donna DiCesare, in the home economics room?

Stan: No. That's Sandi Hobbs, the teacher of education for family life here.

Sheil: Boy, there have been a lot of changes since we were in school. Debbie Chisholm is head of the French Department.

Steve: Yea, and Donald Lewis has taken over Mr. Hardin's lab.

Dianne: Did you know that Muzzie has an assistant now? Eddy Ready is assisting him with football and biology and is doing a great job.

Cindy: Talking about Ed reminds me that I heard Don Ward and Linda Wolak are joined together in a charm school.

Jerry: Remember Tom McNally and Dan Faria? They are both great hockey players for opposing teams.

Pam: I was in Boston last week and hailed a taxi cab. When I got in, it was Jimmy Burke driving. He told me that he owns his own cab.

Judy: It seems funny that he should be in that business, especially after our high school play. Linda Harvey turned to something else; she is a dress designer for Saks Fifth Avenue in New York.

Dave: Talk about unusual things, I was talking to Jackie Reilly and Lennie Ferrara at their gas station and they said that Marty Demling had gone to Holloywood to become an actor. The last they heard, Marty was learning the tricks of being a stunt man.

Stan: Hey, Look at that billboard! That looks like Robert Covell.

Dianne: Yes, this is his first movie; it's a different version of the Nutty Professor.

Karen: Oh, look on the other side. There's vivacious Phyllis Johnson coming out of the Brylcream tube!

Jerry: Sheil, have you kept your appointment with Martha Ann Lundgren?

Sheil: Yes, Joyce Samuelson fitted me with my contacts the other day.

Judy: Did you all know that Miss Poirier is gone and Barbara Peterson and Elaine Riccelli take care of the library?

Cindy: Carol Peck has replaced Susan Thompson as head mother of the Rainbow Girls and Tom Sabin is reluctant head of Masons.

Stan: Karen, slow down. There's a sign that says "Chicken Crossing." That must be Robert Andrews' chicken farm with Berniece Andrews selling eggs and poultry.

Dave: I read in a magazine on cars, that Phil Conant is an Indianapolis racer and Dave Caswell is his mechanic.

Pam: Let's go to Freddie's. You know, the night club owned by Fred Vendt on Bridge Boulevard.

Dianne: Karen, pull up in front where the doorman is standing. Hey, that's George Goveia.

Jerry: Let's go in and leave the car to the parking attendant, Stephen Thomas.

Sheil: Hey, look at that thick red carpeting. I remember reading in an Interior Decorating magazine, when this place was being built, that Ricky Carpenter installed it.

Stan: We just checked our hats with Bernice Robinson. Here comes the Maitre d' finally. Mark Bergeron!!!!!

Steve: A table for ten, please, Mark.
"Cigars, Cigarettes, Tiparillos!"

Karen: That voice sounds familiar. Why, it's Rainie Santos.

Dave: Yes, and she's waiting on Linda Strode and Robert Millette, the lawyer.

Pam: Look over there, aren't those two men Jim Thrasher and John Pilz, the famous mink farmers?

Cindy: Here comes Jim Mitchell to take our orders.

Judy: Isn't that a beautiful mural on the wall? The signature says it's done by Frank Holub. I heard he is a famous Austrian painter.
(The lights dim under Frank Allen's direction and on comes that handsome announcer, Billy Brennan.)

Sheil: Gee, it's Lorena McCann, the new singing sensation.

Jerry: I read on the program that Chris Coleman and Nancy Evans dance to the music of Steve Beaucaire, Steve Burroughs, and Richard Yardley.

Cindy: They also have Corinne Chase in the program doing native dances. Her manager is Linda Clark. Carol Harlow designs all her costumes and Barbara Buckley makes them.

Stan: On our way in I saw Mike Norrman and Steve Spinney tending bar.

Pam: Isn't that Nancy Rollins and Lorna Varney waiting in line to come in?

Judy: Yes, I heard they both work for Phyllis Stromberg, who owns a real estate company.

Steve: We better leave. Oh, there's another member of our class, John Loveday, who has replaced Dear Abby with the male point of view.

Karen: Let's take the back road to the hotel, passing the Sherry Constantine and Karen Russell estates.

Dianne: W :'d better register with Owen Graf, the hotel clerk who manages Jim Howard's establishment.

Stan: Aren't you ladies going to stop at Pam Hess' and Valerie Lanzilli's beauty shop? We'll go to Edgar Hiltz's barber shop.

Dave: Did you see Ronald Banks shining Alan Hammond's shoes outside the barber shop?

Sheil: No, but we were talking to Suzanne Woodworth, Diane Keneklis, and Bonnie Dufault, who work on the hotel staff, and they told us that Linda MacMillan is chief of staff with Bruce Cassidy.

Steve: Rob Mitchell, the famous Harvard professor, is in the next room and he tells me that Steffie Bronchuk is still attending Harvard Medical School.

Pam: I was just talking to Ray Wallace, who is the founder of the Senior Citizen Club of Easton, and he said that a lot of our old classmates will be in the main dining room.

Jerry: Well then, let's get going!!!

The year 1965-66 saw the Student Council with new officers and members and new ideas to be carried out. The officers for this year were Robert Mitchell, President; Martha Bergeron, Vice-President; Donald Ward, Treasurer; Karen Rollins, Secretary.

During the year the council has tried to inform the students of the various activities at the high school. This has been achieved by the adding of the bulletin board in the school lunchroom with the activities of the week posted on it. We have also tried to solve any problems or complaints the students may have. In order to get a better understanding of what a Student Council actually is and the tasks it is asked to perform, delegates were sent to the fall convention of the Eastern Massachusetts Division of Student Councils. We have also paid dues for our membership in the Massachusetts Association of Student Councils for the year 1965-66.

The Student Council would like to express its deep appreciation to the student body for their cooperation during this year and to Mrs. Varella, our advisor, for her concern and assistance in making this past year memorable and successful.

This year, Oliver Ames had its first professionally published newspaper. With funds from last year's profits, the staff worked hard to put out the first newspaper. It was a tremendous success and it is hoped that it can continue. Once the paper is financially, stable, a regular printing schedule will be established.

The staff members should be congratulated on their fine combined effort this year —the paper was a result of everyone's work. The advice and assistance of Mr. Lowndes and Mrs. Andrus, the paper's co-advisors, were greatly appreciated. Special credit should also be given to the Seniors, many of whom have been on the staff for three years.

The Bridge Club was formed last fall, its purpose being to teach students the art and mechanics of the popular game of bridge. As the club was opened to beginners, there was much response in the school, and many people joined.

For the first few meetings, our advisor, Mr. Harrison, taught us the fundamentals of bridge. We learned the point-count system and the basic play of bridge. We were then able to start playing the game.

At first, there was much confusion, as many of the club members had never played bridge before. With teachers and students who were experienced players, helping us individually, we learned enough to appreciate and enjoy the game.

The Bridge Club is unlike other clubs in that its meetings are not regularly scheduled. Instead, different teams play each other at their own convenience.

Playing bridge is a lot of fun. Anyone interested may contact Mr. Harrison.

This past year the Drama Club has had many successful activities. Our money-raising project, selling toll house cookies in the lunch room every first and third Monday, has proved to be quite successful.

Members participated in the club's entry for the Drama Festival held in March. We went to Boston to a play and on other occasions visited other schools to see their productions. With the help of all the members the Drama Club has had a successful year under the direction of Miss Boueher.

We look forward next year to joining an established league, and having debates on a regular schedule.

The members of the club would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Oliver for his hard work in making the Speech and Debate Club a most successful and active venture.

THE MAJORETTES

At half time during our football games the O. A. "Tiger" Band marched on to the field led by the majorettes twirling their batons. The majorettes marched with the band during the various parades throughout the year. We also performed at the exchange concerts. It should be noted that six of the ten girls on the squad are new members as of last September. Our many hard and long practices have brought the O.A. majorettes a new recognition. The members of the corps are: Carol Peck, captain, Pamela Hess, Susan Shaffer, co-captain, Janet Hill, Judy Correia, Deborah Darling, Sandra Blye, Kathleen Brennick, Jayne Williams, and Susan Poliseno.

Anne Coe, Thomas Reilly, Harry Messier, Leslie Gray

On September 28, 1965, the junior class held its first meeting of the year with Thomas Reilly presiding. The new business discussed was a bottle drive that was held September 18. With many of our fellow classmates participating, it proved to be a lot of fun as well as a financial success.

Next on our schedule of events was a dance October 9, with a local band providing entertainment.

Our Junior Social was held November 18, with the theme "Carnival of Colors". With beautiful murals and gay colored streamers, our social truly proved to be a success from all viewpoints.

Our classmates should also be congratulated for their contributions to the various sports activities throughout the year. Harry Messier and Paul DeCouto were chosen football co-captains of the 1966 season. Rhonda Nisenbaum and Dianna Churchill are co-captains of field hockey next year.

Many cake sales were sponsored by our class throughout the year, which brought in some helpful fund money.

During the months of January to May preparations were being made for our first prom. In cooperation with the Seniors we presented a rewarding evening of dining and dancing. Our prom committees' chairmen were as follows: tuxedo, Harry Messier; tickets, Tom Clay; cleanup, Paul Anderson; flowers, Anne Burke; refreshments, Dorothy Anderson; decorations, Barbara Mitchell; entertainment, Ellen Cady; invitation, Anne Coe.

Following Oliver Ames traditions, the ushers and usherettes were chosen by the Seniors for the Reception. Decorating for the reception was our last social function as Juniors.

The Class of 1967 would like to thank Mr. Wooster for his guidance and assistance throughout the year.

Riding on the crest of last year's State Championship the Tigers with only five returning lettermen, worked hard under the direction of coaches Val Muscato, William Nixon, and Edward Lemish trying to equal it.

In our opening game against Fairhaven the running of Steve Beaucaire and all around healthy playing resulted in a well deserved 22-0 victory. Against Hull, a determined goal line stood by Co-Capt. Ed Ready and the defensive work of Bob Parsons, Lou Nisenbaum, and Don Ward, merited a 0-0 tie aginst this tough opponent.

Disaster, in the form of four fumbles, followed against Mansfield, in which the Green Hornets came from behind with two minutes to go to win 20-26, to break the Tigers' 15 game undefeated streak. The next week the Tigers found revenge against King Philip by a score of 32-22. But the following week a strong Taunton team handed us a disappointing defeat, 0-6.

Franklin, destined to be the Class D Champs, came out on top with a score of 6-44. This score does not indicate that many of those points came as a result of lucky breaks for Franklin. To add to our loss Craig Simonson, a fine blocker and hard runner, was out with a knee injury.

Although the league championship was out of reach, the Tigers ground out a 14-12 victory against Canton in an exciting game filled with fights, long runs, passes, and kick-off returns. The victory was insured as Don Ward swept around the left end for the extra points and a tie was prevented as Brute Parsons drove Dick DeCembrille to the turf in his attempt for the tying score. The next week was a heart breaker. Playing in the mud, the Foxboro offense found firm footing and, despite an excellent defense effort of Larry Dale, the Tigers lost a squeaker 6-7. Against perennial rival Randolph breaks, in the form of a long pass and a later pass interception proved the demise of the Tigers.

From the pre-season practice to the nostalgia of the last game the field hockey team worked and played in true Oliver Ames fashion, and their record proved it. Finishing the season with seven wins, two ties, and one loss, O.A. placed second in the Hockomock League. The Junior Varsity also had a successful season with a record of seven wins, two losses, and one tie.

The season opener with King Philip ended in a 1-1 tie. The next game was an important one for the girls, because it was against their traditional rival, Foxboro. In a spectacular game, the O.A. girls rallied in the last minute of play to come away with a 2-2 tie. For the next four games, the girls were not satisfied with ties and won them all. Then on the rocky field of Stoughton, the team met its only defeat of the season. O.A. came back, however, in the final game to defeat them 5-1.

The two experienced co-captains, Deborah Coe and Karen DeCosta, ably led the team in locker-room pep talks and on-the-field action. Much credit is to be given to the coaches, Miss Rivard and Miss Ferrandino and all team members.

The inexperienced Oliver Ames basketball team confounded the critics, by successfully defending their Hockomock League title and for the eleventh time in twelve years, qualified for the State Basketball Tournament. A tremendous gap was left last year through the loss of eight graduating lettermen. Coach Val Muscato found the answer to a winning basketball combination centered around a junior captain, Thomas Clay. Speed, ability, and desire coupled with the fine play of seniors: Donald Ward, Craig Simonson, Robert Parsons, and the support of Juniors: Paul DeCoute, Paul Anderson, and Jeffrey Chase were the facts and answers to a successful basketball team.

This year's basketball team exemplified the true spirit of typical Oliver Ames High School sport. Dedication and hard work combined in a complete team and coaching effort, led our boys to a record that most people felt they could not attain.

Next year's team looks to be as good as this year's excellent team. With a loss of only three lettermen, it is hoped that next year's seniors and juniors can defend their title and have another great year.

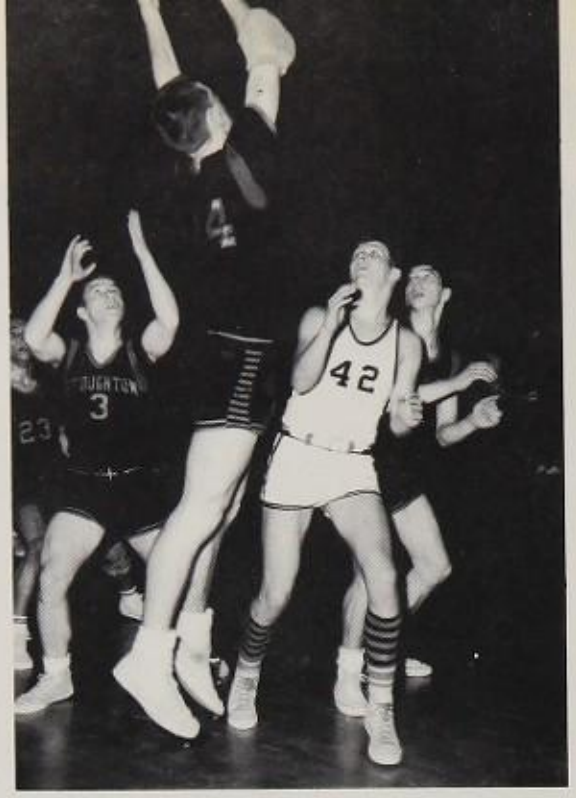
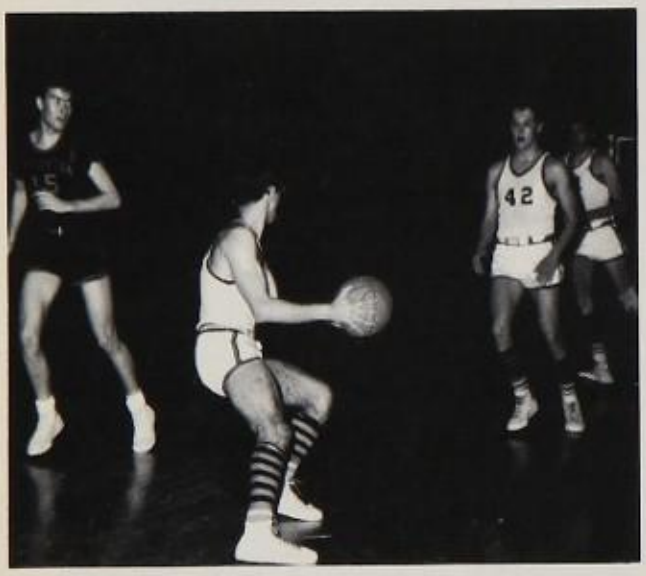
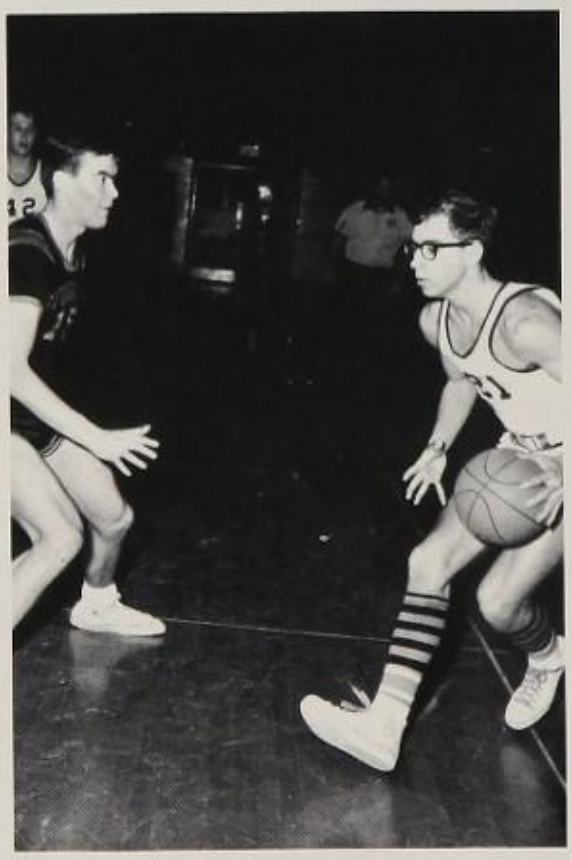
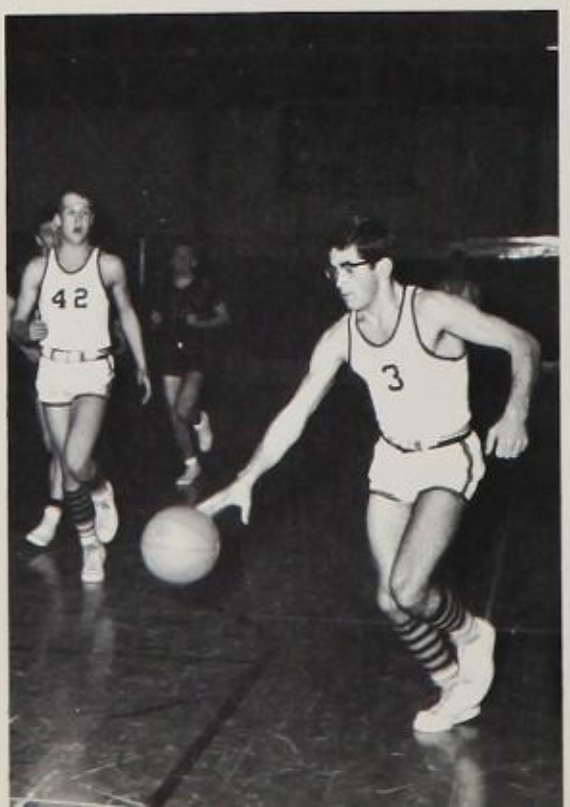
Court Action With The O.A. Tigers









Undefeated

L. to R. row I: M. Middleton, D. Barker, D. Coe, K. DeCosta, J. Peterson, M. Guest, S. Anderson, D. Churchill, J. Miller.

Cheers could be heard from the gym as the girls' basketball team won its final game of the season and finished its third undefeated season in a row.

In the season opener with King Philip, the girls won easily with three of the team scoring in double figures. The next three games were fast and close in the first half, but O.A. pulled ahead and enjoyed a fairly large lead. Canton was the "big game" of the season because of a 6'3" team member. O.A. came onto the floor with apprehension but determination; nevertheless at the half, they were losing. However, a terrific drive in the last half pulled the game to a 39-37 victory. The rest of the games were won in true Oliver Ames style.

The Junior Varsity team is also to be congratulated as it finished its second undefeated season under the fine coaching of Miss Ferrandino.

As in field hockey, much credit goes to the excellent leadership and ability of the co-captains, Karen DeCosta and Debbie Coe, and to the time and assistance of the coach, Miss Rivard.

The seniors who were members of the team are Deborah Barker, Deborah Coe, Karen DeCosta, Melissa Middleton, and Janet Peterson.

With thoughts focused on a future made bright by memories of our years at Oliver Ames, we leave—prepared for the opportunities which await us. Though our lives will go in varying directions, we will never forget the education or the fun we shared within these walls. So now, we the Class of 1966, bid a fond farewell to Oliver Ames High School, our Alma Mater.
